

I had to learn that I could be a plain old playful dog as long as my halter was off.
But once it was on... I was working.
I became the eyes of my master and their safety and how they got around was up to me.

